IDWR will be conducting a series of floodplain workshops this summer for local government officials, developers, and property owners throughout the state.

The one-day workshops will focus on the National Flood Insurance Program minimum standards for ordinances, floodplain development permit procedures, flood map use, and legal issues associated with floodplain management and development.

There is no fee to attend any of the workshops however it would be appreciated if attendees would register beforehand to ensure adequate conference rooms are reserved. Each conference will run from 8 a.m. – 5 p.m. with a one-hour break for lunch at about noon.

More information about the workshops including registration forms can be found on the IDWR website: www.idwr.idaho.gov/water/flood/
